

VOICES FOUNDATION NEWS: APPOINTMENT OF CATHY PHILLIPS BRADY AS GENERAL MANAGER FROM JUNE 2019

Tuesday 4th June 2019

The Voices Foundation is delighted to announce that Cathy Phillips Brady has been appointed to join the management team as General Manager in June 2019.

Cathy has over a decade of professional experience in arts management, specialising in Learning and Participation. Career highlights include working for Royal Opera House, Wigmore Hall Learning, Gabrieli Consort & Players, Britten Sinfonia, British Council Music and London Youth Choir. As a freelancer she has led programmes for London Borough of Culture, Music for Youth, Music Education Council, Welsh National Opera and Harrow Arts Centre. She is also a choral singer and practitioner holding a PGCE in Secondary Music with experience in secondary and primary music teaching: classroom and peripatetic. Cathy has enjoyed sitting on the boards of the European Music Council, European Choral Association and Centre17. She is thrilled to be joining The Voices Foundation in their 25th anniversary year!

The board, team and practitioners at Voices Foundation look forward to working with Cathy. Cathy will work closely with the CEO (Rebecca Le Brocq) to support our strategic progress by taking a lead on operational development, fundraising and special projects.

During this period, the Voices Foundation is excited to be part of a major project in partnership with the David Ross Education Trust as part of Paul Hamlyn Foundation's Teacher Development Fund and looks forward to the launch of the first phase of our Online Teacher Learning Centre. Our partnerships with individual schools, multi academy trusts and Music Education Hubs will be central to how we increase our reach and impact over this time. We look forward to welcoming Cathy to the team.
